Headline:
A cold start. Turning milder with patchy rain.

Today:
A cold start and it will be mainly cloudy with occasional rain, and perhaps a little snow across western Aberdeenshire this morning. However, milder conditions will push in from the west and temperatures will gradually recover. Windy at times later. Maximum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Tonight:
Cloudy with patchy light rain and drizzle at times, although the odd heavier burst possible through northern Aberdeenshire. Breezy and much milder than of late. Minimum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Tuesday:
Cloudy with outbreaks of rain, heavy at times. Becoming drier and clearer in the evening with a scattering of showers. Maximum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Bright and breezy with showers on Wednesday, these turning increasing wintry. Bright spells with wintry showers on Thursday, the showers well scattered on Friday, often dry and bright.
